

SUZANNE COHN

BIOGRAPHICAL PROFILE

Suzanne Cohn (née Shulamit Dubiecka), daughter of Walter and Tania Dubiecki, was born on June 1, 1938, in Kobryn, Poland. During the war, Suzanne, her parents, and her older sister Rachel were sent to a ghetto in their hometown.

They escaped from the ghetto and hid in various locations – factories, farms, houses, and schools – throughout Poland.

Suzanne’s sister, Wendy, was born in 1944. In 1945, Soviet Armed Forces liberated the family in Piotrków, Poland. Suzanne’s brother George was born in 1945. The family lived in Australia and before they settled in the United States.

In 1965, Suzanne married Norman Cohn. Suzanne has five children and ten grandchildren. This interview took place on November 1, 2011, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
