

DISTRICT-WIDE HOLOCAUST EDUCATION SERVICES

Echoes & Reflections supports implementation of Holocaust education across subject areas through our diverse collection of curated content and teacher professional development — all of which can be combined to develop a comprehensive and unique Holocaust education experience for educators and students in your district.

Below are current Echoes & Reflections products and programs available to support your district's Holocaust education initiatives. Echoes & Reflections is provided free-of-charge thanks to the generosity of our funders.

CUSTOMIZED CURRICULUM DESIGN AND INTEGRATION

Expert review and recommendations to current Holocaust education offerings.
Customized packaging of Echoes & Reflections resources to support learning goals.
Individualized coaching to teacher teams to integrate content into curricular frameworks.

ONLINE LEARNING PROGRAMS

LIVE SESSIONS

1–3 hours in length, led by a facilitator that focuses on foundational or thematic topics. Minimum 50 registrants.

MINI COURSES

Asynchronous and interactive modules on foundational or thematic topics, released over one week; about 3 hours to complete. Facilitator supported in conversation with your educator network. Minimum 50 registrants.

THREE-PART COURSES

Multi-module credit-bearing courses on an introduction to teaching about the Holocaust or contemporary antisemitism, released over 3 weeks; 6–10 hours to complete. Facilitator supported in conversation with your educator network. Minimum 50 registrants.