

Your group will create an artifact that represents a person, event, or action related to Jewish resistance during the Holocaust. The artifact is an object made by people with cultural or historical meaning. It should tell a story that brings a memory to life and makes a certain time in history real.

The artifact explores:	The artifact is accompanied by:	Artifact examples include (but are not limited to):
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What Jews were resisting (beyond just Nazi oppression) • Why they resisted (beyond just survival) • How they resisted (the type and nature of the acts) • The impact of the resistance efforts (then and now) 	An object description, featuring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A title • Relevant date(s) and place(s) • 1-2 paragraphs of text describing the object and its historical meaning • Artists'/authors' names 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A religious object used to worship in secret • A musical instrument, painting, or other object of cultural expression • A document or letter from a secret school or archive • A replica of a weapon or other object used to attack or defend • A diary or other written record of personal experiences • A flag raised in defiance in a ghetto