BIOGRAPHICAL PROFILE

ECHOES & REFLECTIONS

TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST. INSPIRING THE CLASSROOM.

Rachel Slagter was born on April 3, 1940, in Apeldoorn, Netherlands, to religious Jewish parents Lion and Rebecca Slagter. When the war began, she was forced to live in the Amsterdam Ghetto. During the war, she was able to successfully go into hiding by concealing her identity. She was able to escape and migrate to Israel and then eventually the United States. Rachel has two children: Rebecca Baly and Ruben Levine, and two grandchildren: Yardena Levin and Gabriella Levin. This interview was conducted on November 24, 1997, in Sherman Oaks, California.
